

TECHNOGYM KETTLEBELL SET

The Technogym Kettlebell set is both attractive and ergonomic - the perfect combination for both home and superyacht gym users!

Kettlebells have become standard equipment in modern day fitness facilities. In fact, kettlebell training is a key part of integrated movement-based exercise because the whole body is involved in managing the load while it swings through various planes of motion.

Technogym has developed a state-of-the-art kettlebell that fully complies with its brand identity and high quality standards.
